Subject: Statement of Satisfactory Performance

This is to certify that the Sustainable Research and Development Center (SRD) was contracted by the World University Service of Canada (WUSC)/Iraq Office to provide consultancy services in Iraq under several projects.

SRD Center was responsible for delivering the following assignments:

1. Career Guidance, Vocational Guidance, and Counselling Services within Vocational Training Centers and Technical Universities in Iraq, under the TAWASOL Project Consortium (2025–2026).
2. Soft Skills Curriculum and Training Consultancy, TAWASOL Project (2024–2025).
3. Work-Based Training Coaching and Mentoring Services, TAWASOL Project (2025).
4. Labour Market Assessment and Training, BRIDGE Project (2021–2023).

Throughout the implementation of these contracts, SRD Center demonstrated strong commitment, professionalism, effective communication, and constructive cooperation with WUSC and relevant stakeholders. The Center showed a high level of responsibility, technical competence, and professional capacity in carrying out the assigned tasks.

All deliverables were completed and submitted in a timely manner and to a satisfactory standard.

Accordingly, WUSC Iraq Office confirms its satisfaction with the performance of SRD Center in relation to the above-mentioned consultancy services.

Sincerely,
Osama Khadim

To Whom it May Concern,

This letter is to certify that Qasem Alnewashi was engaged to provide consultancy service agreements under the assignment "Impact Evaluation for the SHINE Project in East Amman".

The specific evaluation objectives are as follows:

1. To assess the overall performance and outcomes of the SHINE Project in relation to its core objectives of improving livelihoods, housing conditions, and social cohesion among refugees and vulnerable Jordanians in East Amman.
2. To evaluate the effectiveness, relevance, efficiency, sustainability, and impact of project interventions, with specific focus on vocational training (home maintenance and upcycling), improved living conditions through home maintenance activities, and strengthened community ties.
3. To identify challenges, lessons learned, and areas for improvement in project design and implementation, including cross-cutting considerations such as gender equality, community participation, and inclusion.
4. To provide practical, evidence-based recommendations to enhance CRP's future programming and strengthen the organization's approach to livelihoods, housing, and social cohesion initiatives.

Qasem Alnewashi has successfully completed the assignments and the deliverables in stipulated time as per terms and conditions. We are satisfied with his performance and the quality of work delivered. In particular, we appreciated his thoughtful approach toward engaging with the community, his ability to gain participants' trust, and the valuable, well-grounded recommendations he provided to support CRP's future programming.

Sincerely,

Amanda Lane, President & CEO
